NEW QUESTION # 34
Complete the sentence. The passive counterpart of the application component in the application layer is called a(n)_____

- A. Application event
- B. Data object
- C. Product
- D. Meaning

Answer: B

Explanation:
According to the application layer metamodel, the passive counterpart of the application component is the data object, which represents data structured for automated processing. A data object can be accessed or manipulated by an application component or an application function.

NEW QUESTION # 35
What are external active structure elements also called?

- A. Interfaces
- B. Services
- C. Capabilities
- D. Resources

Answer: A

Explanation:
According to the ArchiMate 3.2 Specification1, external active structure elements are also called interfaces. An interface represents a point of access where one or more services are offered by an active structure element to its environment1. Therefore, the correct answer is B. Interfaces.

NEW QUESTION # 37
A Risk Assessment service provided by a Risk Measurement application enables actuaries to assess and mitigate financial risks as part of the Enterprise Risk Management process

Which combination of relationships, when added to this diagram, would best represent this situation?

- A. Realization and 2. Realization
- B. Realization and 2. Serving
- C. Serving and 2. Realization
- D. Realization and 2. Assignment

Answer: B

Explanation:
Based on the ArchiMate 3 documents or objectives, a realization relationship indicates that an entity plays a critical role in the creation, achievement, sustenance, or operation of a more abstract entity. A serving relationship models that an element provides its functionality to another element. The diagram should use a realization relationship from the Risk Assessment service to the Enterprise Risk Management process to indicate that the service realizes the process. The diagram should also use a serving relationship from the Risk Measurement application to the Risk Assessment service to indicate that the application serves the service.
