Assure the client that he will receive the lowest premium rate possible//Before rendering any counseling services, a counselor must prepare a written agreement to be signed by both the counselor and the client. This agreement outlines the work to be performed and the fee to be paid. It must also state that the fee cannot be waived and that the counselor will earn a commission from the insurer for placing insurance. A counselor must keep a copy of an agreement for at least two years.

Maryland Insurance Administration Maryland Life Producer Exam (Series 20-27) Sample Questions (Q38-Q43):

NEW QUESTION # 38

An insurance producer's license may be suspended or revoked by:

- A. The Attorney General
- B. The appointing insurer
- C. The continuing education course provider
- D. The Maryland Insurance Administration

Answer: D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Step by Step Explanation: The Maryland Insurance Administration (MIA) has sole authority to regulate, suspend, or revoke an insurance producer's license for violations of state insurance laws:

* Maryland Insurance Administration (C): Correct. The MIA oversees producer licensing, compliance, and disciplinary actions.

* Appointing insurer (A): Can terminate an appointment but cannot revoke a license.

* Continuing education provider (B): Only offers training and has no regulatory authority.

* Attorney General (D): Handles legal actions but does not directly manage licensing.

References: Maryland Insurance Article §10-126, Producer Regulation Guidelines, COMAR 31.03.13.

NEW QUESTION # 39

A producer is prohibited from:

- A. Countersigning a policy sold in Maryland
- B. Splitting commissions with a licensed nonresident producer who has jointly sold a policy
- C. Allowing an applicant to sign a blank or incomplete application
- D. Selling insurance to family members

Answer: C

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Step by Step Explanation: Allowing an applicant to sign a blank or incomplete application (B) violates ethical and legal standards, as it undermines transparency and could lead to disputes about coverage or claims.

* Selling insurance to family members (A): Permitted as long as the transactions are conducted ethically and comply with Maryland laws.

* Countersigning policies (C): Required in certain situations to validate contracts in Maryland.

* Splitting commissions with nonresident producers (D): Permissible under Maryland law, provided both producers are licensed and involved in the transaction.

References: Maryland Insurance Administration Producer Conduct Rules, COMAR 31.03.13, and Ethical Standards for Insurance Producers.

NEW QUESTION # 40

An insurable interest in each other's lives may exist in the absence of an economic interest when the individuals are:

- A. Business associates
- B. Marriage partners
- C. Traveling companions
- D. Competitors

Answer: B

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Step by Step Explanation: Insurable interest arises when there is a legitimate interest in the continued life of another person.

- * Marriage partners (C) inherently have an insurable interest due to emotional and legal bonds.
- * Competitors (A) and traveling companions (D) do not typically meet the threshold for insurable interest.
- * Business associates (B) may have insurable interest, but it usually requires contractual agreements (e.g., buy-sell agreements).

References: Maryland Insurance Code and Insurable Interest Guidelines.

NEW QUESTION # 41

The entire contract provision in a life insurance policy states that the policy includes:

- A. The Medical Information Bureau report
- B. The producer's report to the insurer
- C. Any attending physician's statement
- D. The application attached to the policy

Answer: D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Step by Step Explanation: The entire contract clause ensures transparency by limiting the policy's terms to the policy document and any attached application materials.

* The application attached to the policy (B): Correct. It becomes part of the legal agreement between the insurer and the policyholder.

* The Medical Information Bureau report (A): Used for underwriting but not part of the policy.

* Any attending physician's statement (C): May inform underwriting but is not included in the policy.

* The producer's report to the insurer (D): Internal to the insurer and irrelevant to the contract itself.

References: Maryland Insurance Code §16-203, Entire Contract Provision Standards, and COMAR 31.09.09.

NEW QUESTION # 42

A policy of life insurance may NOT be delivered unless the policy has a:

- A. Notary seal
- B. Financial statement of the life insurance company
- C. Premium coupon book
- D. Legible and brief description of the policy on the first page

Answer: D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Step by Step Explanation: Maryland law mandates that life insurance policies include a clear and concise description of the policy on the first page to ensure transparency and understanding for policyholders.

* Legible and brief description (A): Correct. This ensures the buyer can quickly identify key terms and benefits of the policy.

* Notary seal (B): Not required for delivering life insurance policies.

* Premium coupon book (C): Optional, often replaced with digital billing methods.

* Financial statement of the insurer (D): Not required in the policy itself, although insurers must provide financial stability information upon request.
