NEW QUESTION # 63

Where can you initiate carrier selection? Note: There are 2 correct answers to this question.

- A. From the container unit user interface
- B. From the freight booking user interface
- C. From SAP Business Network for Logistics
- D. From report /SCMTMS/PLN_OPT

Answer: C,D

Explanation:

Carrier selection in SAP S/4HANA Transportation Management can be initiated from specific interfaces or tools designed for planning and tendering. According to the SAP documentation:

* From report /SCMTMS/PLN_OPT (A) allows users to trigger carrier selection as part of the transportation planning process, typically used for automated or manual planning.

* From SAP Business Network for Logistics (C) enables carrier selection through tendering processes, where carriers are invited to bid on freight orders.

The other options are incorrect:

* Freight booking user interface (B) is used for managing bookings (e.g., ocean or air transport) but is not typically used to initiate carrier selection, which is more aligned with freight orders.

* Container unit user interface (D) is used for managing container-related data but does not support carrier selection.
