DSCI Certified Privacy Lead Assessor DCPLA certification Sample Questions (Q33-Q38):

NEW QUESTION # 33

As a privacy assessor, what would most likely be the first artefact you would ask for while assessing an organization which claims that it has implemented a privacy program?

- A. Records of deployed privacy notices and statements
- B. Records of privacy specific training imparted to the employees handling personal information
- C. Personal information management policy
- D. Privacy risk management framework

Answer: C

Explanation:

According to the DSCI Assessment Framework for Privacy (DAF#P), a "Personal Information Management Policy" is a foundational artefact that reflects the organization's commitment and operationalization of privacy practices. It typically defines how personal information is collected, used, disclosed, retained, and disposed of across the organization.

This artefact not only outlines governance structures and responsibilities but also links to other aspects such as risk management, compliance tracking, and privacy notices. Hence, it is the logical first document for a privacy assessor to request.

NEW QUESTION # 34

Who is a Data Processor?

- A. Entity that decides the means and purposes of processing
- B. Entity that collects personal data
- C. Entity that controls the data
- D. Entity that acts on behalf of Data Fiduciary

Answer: D

Explanation:

A Data Processor under the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 is any entity that processes personal data on behalf of a Data Fiduciary. It does not independently determine the purpose or means of processing but strictly follows the instructions of the Data Fiduciary. Therefore, D is the correct answer.
