- A. Encryption
- B. Geofencing
- C. Remote wipe
- D. Facial recognition

Answer: C

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract:

Remote wipe is the best option to prevent unauthorized access to data when a mobile device is lost or stolen- especially if the user is unaware of the loss. It allows administrators or mobile device management (MDM) systems to remotely erase all data on the device, rendering it unusable for unauthorized users.

A: Encryption protects the data, but if the device remains powered and logged in, it may still be accessible.

C: Geofencing can restrict features based on location but does not erase data.

D: Facial recognition helps secure access but can be bypassed in some cases or fail in practical situations.

NEW QUESTION # 62

Which of the following describes an attack in which an attacker sets up a rogue AP that tricks users into connecting to the rogue AP instead of the legitimate network?

- A. Shoulder surfing
- B. Evil twin
- C. Stalkerware
- D. Tailgating

Answer: B

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract:

An evil twin is a rogue wireless access point set up to mimic a legitimate Wi-Fi network. Unsuspecting users may connect to it, giving attackers the opportunity to intercept traffic, steal credentials, or install malware.

The evil twin often uses the same SSID as the real network to fool users.

A: Stalkerware is spyware installed to track user activity, typically on personal devices.

C: Tailgating is a physical security breach involving unauthorized entry behind someone with access.

D: Shoulder surfing involves observing a person entering confidential data, such as PINs or passwords.

- A. Document the change
- B. Implement the change
- C. Schedule the change
- D. Approve the change

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract:

Before any change is implemented, it must be documented as part of change management procedures. This ensures transparency, review, and tracking.

From Quentin Docter - CompTIA A+ Complete Study Guide:

"Documenting a change is the first step in change management. This includes defining the scope, purpose, impact, and implementation plan before approval or scheduling."

NEW QUESTION # 64

Every time a user loads a specific spreadsheet, their computer is temporarily unresponsive. The user also notices that the title bar indicates the application is not responding. Which of the following would a technician most likely inspect?

- A. Bandwidth status as reported in the Task Manager
- B. Anti-malware logs
- C. Workstation repair options
- D. File size and related memory utilization

Answer: D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract:

If a system becomes unresponsive while opening a specific spreadsheet, the issue is likely tied to the file's size or the complexity of its content (e.g., embedded formulas, macros, or graphics). High memory utilization caused by the file can lead to temporary freezing or application "Not Responding" messages. Checking the spreadsheet's file size and monitoring system memory in Task Manager will help isolate performance bottlenecks.

A: Anti-malware logs are important for security troubleshooting but less likely relevant to spreadsheet-related performance issues.

B: Workstation repair is for system-wide problems and not necessary for a single-file issue.

C: Bandwidth relates to network usage and wouldn't impact opening a local file.

Reference:

CompTIA A+ 220-1102 Objective 3.3: Troubleshoot common application issues.

Study Guide Section: Troubleshooting application slowness and performance using Task Manager and resource monitoring tools

- A. Go to Local Users and Groups to add the printer
- B. Go to the print server and select the printer name
- C. Connect the laptop to the printer via USB
- D. Connect to the printer via Bluetooth

Answer: B

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract:

In a domain environment, printers are typically deployed via a print server. Users can browse available printers on the server and install them directly.

All-in-One Exam Guide mentions:

"In a corporate domain, printers are managed via a centralized print server. Users can select the desired printer from the server's shared list."
