NEW QUESTION # 26

Which one of the following statements is correct regarding the Provisional Sum under the FIDIC Red, Yellow, and Silver Books (edition 1999)?

- A. The Provisional Sum cannot be issued by instruction either by the Engineer (or Employer in case of FIDIC Silver Book).
- B. Each Provisional Sum shall not be used, in whole or in part, in accordance with instructions from the Engineer.
- C. The Contractor shall, when required by the Engineer, produce proof to substantiate how it has used the Provisional Sum.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

Option B is correct. Under FIDIC contracts, the Contractor must provide proof of how the Provisional Sum has been expended when requested by the Engineer. This ensures transparency and proper use of funds allocated as Provisional Sums.

Option A is incorrect; Provisional Sums are often used based on instructions from the Engineer or Employer.

Option C is incorrect because Provisional Sums are precisely intended to be used, in whole or in part, according to Engineer's or Employer's instructions.

NEW QUESTION # 27

Under the FIDIC Construction Contract, which one of the following statements is correct?

- A. For an ad-hoc DAB, a retainer fee for each DAB Member must be paid to the Member on the first day of each calendar month.
- B. Payments of a DAB Member's retainer fee is the sole responsibility of the Contractor.
- C. If all persons nominated to serve as members of an ad hoc DAB do not sign a DAB Agreement, an appointing entity can make appointments.
- D. A DAB must give its decision in writing on any dispute when requested by one of the Parties.
- E. Payment to DAB Members must be certified by the Employer.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Under the FIDIC Conditions of Contract (particularly 2017 editions), the Dispute Adjudication Board (DAB) is a standing or ad hoc body that provides binding decisions on disputes. One key requirement is that the DAB must give its decisions in writing upon request by either Party, ensuring clarity and enforceability.

Option E is correct as the DAB's decision must be documented formally.

Option A is incorrect; the cost of the DAB is generally shared by Employer and Contractor as per the contract.

Option B is incorrect because retainer fees can be paid on different schedules, not necessarily monthly on the first day.

Option C is incorrect; payments to DAB members do not require Employer's certification but are agreed as part of the DAB contract.

Option D is partially true but not a standalone correct statement without additional context.

NEW QUESTION # 28

You are the Contract Manager for the Engineer in a hospital project using FIDIC Yellow Book (edition 2017). The Employer demands perfection in the project's design and construction quality. There are many Variations initiated by the Employer during design and construction. Which one of the following is considered to be a valid Variation?

- A. The Employer verbally instructs a change in the type of doors. The Engineer issued a Notice describing the required change and denying any costs for the Contractor.
- B. The Engineer requests a proposal regarding a change in type of windows and doors. The Contractor submitted the proposal accordingly to the Engineer. The Engineer instructs the Variation.
- C. The Engineer instructs a change in slopes of the access road to the intensive care unit to meet the Employer's Requirement. The Engineer does so with a Notice in accordance with Sub-Clause 3.5.
- D. The Contractor submits a Value Engineering proposal regarding the lighting system for the operation rooms. The Engineer is positive about the proposal and tells the Contractor they need to look into it.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation:

Option B is correct: A Variation is a formal change to the Works instructed by the Engineer via a Notice (Sub-Clause 3.5). This includes changes to design or execution such as slopes on a road.

Option A is a proposal, not yet a Variation. Positive interest does not constitute a Variation.

Option C is partially correct but depends on formal instruction after proposal acceptance; the question specifies the Engineer instructs the Variation, but since it was a request for proposal first, the Variation instruction comes later. Without explicit instruction, this is not yet a Variation.

Option D is invalid as verbal instruction plus a Notice denying cost claims does not constitute a proper Variation.

NEW QUESTION # 29

Through which two of the following documents may the Employer give information to the Contractor of a planned timetable of meetings such as management meetings, site meetings, technical meetings, and progress meetings?

Choose all of the correct answers (multiple possibilities).

- A. Specification
- B. Special Conditions
- C. General Conditions of Contract
- D. Employer's Requirements

Answer: B,D

Explanation:

The timetable for meetings is usually set out in the Special Conditions (Particular Conditions) and/or the Employer's Requirements, which define project-specific administrative and management arrangements.

Special Conditions customize the General Conditions to the project and often specify meeting schedules.

Employer's Requirements detail the Employer's expectations, including communication protocols and meeting timetables.

The General Conditions (Option A) are standard and do not include project-specific meeting schedules.

The Specification (Option B) mainly covers technical requirements, not administrative matters like meetings.

NEW QUESTION # 30

When does discharge become effective under the FIDIC Red Book (edition 1999)? (1 correct answer applies)

- A. When the Contractor receives its Performance Security from the Employer.
- B. When the Contractor receives full payment certified through the Final Payment Certificate.

- C. When the Contractor receives full payment certified through the Final Payment Certificate and return of the Performance Security.
- D. When the Employer counter signs a discharge notice as issued by the Contractor, following full payment and return of the Performance Security.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Under the FIDIC Red Book 1999, discharge becomes effective when the Contractor has received full payment certified by the Final Payment Certificate and the return of the Performance Security (Sub-Clause 14.10).

Both elements must be completed for the contract to be considered fully discharged, releasing the Contractor from further obligations or liabilities under the contract.

Option A is incomplete as payment alone does not fully discharge the Contractor.

Option B is incomplete as return of Performance Security alone is insufficient.

Option D is incorrect because the contract does not require a discharge notice signed by the Employer beyond these conditions.
