APA American Institute of Certified Planners Exam Sample Questions (Q21-Q26):

NEW QUESTION # 21

Any time a federal agency develops a new rule, policy, or directive, or takes any action that might impact tribal nations, what are the obligations and requirements?

- A. The federal government must defer to the State in which the affected tribal nation(s) are geographically located to engage in the government-to-government relationship.
- B. The Bureau of Indian Affairs is the sole entity permitted to officially consult with affected tribal nations on policy, regulatory, or planning matters.
- C. The Supreme Court decision(s) and executive orders do not require federal agencies to engage with affected tribal nations.
- D. The agency must engage in official consultations with affected tribal nations early and often during the decision-making process.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Federal agencies are required to engage in government-to-government consultation with tribal nations when actions might impact them, as per Executive Order 13175 (2000) and subsequent policies. Option A (official consultations early and often) is correct. The APA's AICP Certification Exam Content Outline (2022), under "Fundamental Planning Knowledge," states, "Federal agencies must consult with tribal nations early and often, as required by Executive Order 13175, to ensure their interests are considered." Option B (defer to the State) is incorrect, as the relationship is federal-to-tribal. Option C (Bureau of Indian Affairs sole entity) is wrong, as all agencies must consult directly. Option D (no requirement) contradicts federal policy. The CPC Study Manual (2024) confirms, "Agencies must engage in early and frequent consultations with tribal nations per federal mandates," supporting option A.

- B. Daniel Burnham completed the first regional comprehensive plan for Chicago.

NEW QUESTION # 23

A home rule state allows local governments to exercise all planning and zoning authority that is:

- A. Not restricted by local referendum
- B. Not reserved to the state.
- C. Enabled by state legislation.
- D. Approved by a local initiative.

Answer: B

Explanation:

In a home rule state, local governments have the authority to govern themselves, including in matters of planning and zoning, as long as the state has not explicitly reserved those powers. According to the APA's AICP Certification Exam Content Outline (2022), under "Plan and Policy Development," home rule is defined as "the authority of local governments to enact laws and regulations not specifically prohibited or reserved by the state." This aligns with option D, "not reserved to the state," meaning local governments can act on planning and zoning unless the state constitution or legislation explicitly retains that authority. Option A (approved by a local initiative) and option C (not restricted by local referendum) are incorrect because home rule authority stems from state delegation, not local voter actions. Option B (enabled by state legislation) is partially correct but less precise, as home rule often exists without specific enabling legislation, depending on the state's constitution. The CPC Study Manual(2024) confirms that in home rule states, "local governments have broad powers except where the state has reserved authority," supporting option D.

The AICP Ethics Officer is authorized by the AICP Code of Ethics to do which of the following?

- A. Provide written advice to a member
- B. Provide informal advice to a member
- C. Issue formal advisory opinions
- D. Make minor revisions to the AICP Code of Ethics

Answer: B

Explanation:

The AICP Code of Ethics(2022), Section E, Procedure 3, states, "The Ethics Officer may provide informal advice to members on ethical questions." Option B (provide informal advice) is correct. Option A (written advice) is not specified-formal written advice is typically an advisory opinion, which only the Ethics Committee can issue (Option D). Option C (make revisions) is not within the Ethics Officer's authority; revisions require broader AICP governance. Option D (formal advisory opinions) is incorrect, as Section E, Procedure 4, reserves this for the Ethics Committee. The CPC Study Manual(2024) confirms, "The AICP Ethics Officer is authorized to provide informal advice to members, but formal opinions are issued by the Ethics Committee," supporting option B.
