ACFE CFE (Certified Fraud Examiner) Exam is a globally recognized certification program designed to validate the expertise and knowledge of professionals in the field of fraud examination. Certified Fraud Examiner certification is offered by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE), which is the world's largest anti-fraud organization, providing education, training, and certification to fraud examiners.

Get professional visibility and credibility

The CFE is accepted worldwide as a standard of excellence in the anti-fraud profession. A CFE is more likely to manage its missions with a higher level of trust and competence and therefore be taken more seriously in its professions.

See, for example, the level of credibility given to the director of the CID, George Kinoti, and to the director of the prosecution, Noordin Haji.
