APA American Institute of Certified Planners Exam Sample Questions (Q21-Q26):

NEW QUESTION # 21

A planner is responsible for a comprehensive plan update with limited time and staff resources. The planner, as the team leader, must motivate the team members to do their task(s) and responsibilities. The best strategy to do this is to:

- A. Craft a memorandum assigning detailed responsibilities.
- B. Require staff to prepare daily progress reports.
- C. Keep an open-door policy for questions, track progress, and support if needed.
- D. Rely on outside resources such as guidelines, templates, and sample products.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Motivating a team with limited resources requires supportive leadership that fosters collaboration and addresses challenges. Option C (keep an open-door policy, track progress, and support if needed) is the best strategy, as it encourages communication, monitors progress without micromanaging, and provides assistance, boosting morale and productivity. The APA's AICP Certification Exam Content Outline(2022), under

"Leadership," states, "Effective team motivation involves maintaining open communication, tracking progress, and providing support to address resource constraints." Option A (daily reports) is overly controlling and may demotivate staff. Option B (detailed memo) assigns tasks but doesn't motivate. Option D (outside resources) is a tool, not a motivation strategy. The CPC Study Manual(2024) confirms, "Leaders motivate teams by keeping open communication, tracking progress, and offering support," supporting option C. NEW QUESTION # 22

Scenario

You are a planner in a community with a new sign ordinance that prohibits banners from being strung across the road. The ordinance was adopted in response to several unattractive advertising banners that had frequently been strung across local roads and often become entangled with electrical wires. On your way to work one morning, you see that a community group has strung a banner across the main street that advertises an upcoming charity event that will generate thousands of dollars for needy families. You know that the money is greatly needed and that local officials and residents support the event. What might be your first reaction?

Answer:

Explanation:

See the solution below

Explanation

Whatever your sympathies, you do not have the luxury of ignoring the banner. Ignoring the banner because it is for a cause that you personally support and because you personally argue that it is more important for outcomes to be fair than for processes to be fair, is NOT an option because a planner must obey regulations.

NEW QUESTION # 24

The land use planner for an industrial firm's corporate real estate department has been asked to assemble, organize, and analyze a variety of information that will be used to determine which parcels of land owned by the firm are surplus and can be disposed of. Which of the following is the most essential in making the determination?

- A. Existing land use maps
- B. The corporate strategic plan
- C. The community comprehensive plan
- D. Book values

Answer: B

Explanation:

Determining which parcels are surplus requires aligning the decision with the firm's long-term goals, which are outlined in the corporate strategic plan. Option D (the corporate strategic plan) is most essential, as it defines the firm's objectives, such as future expansion or operational needs, guiding which parcels are no longer needed. The APA's AICP Certification Exam Content Outline(2022), under "Administration and Management," states, "For corporate planners, the strategic plan is the primary tool for determining surplus land, as it outlines the firm's future land use needs." Option A (book values) provides financial data but doesn't address strategic fit. Option B (land use maps) and C (community comprehensive plan) are relevant for external context but secondary to the firm's internal strategy. The CPC Study Manual(2024) confirms, "The corporate strategic plan is the most essential factor in determining surplus land, as it reflects the firm's long-term objectives," supporting option D.

NEW QUESTION # 25

Scenario

You are a planner for a city planning department and you have an old friend who runs a planning consulting firm in the same city. Your friend submits a competitive proposal to work as a consultant for your department to you on Friday and while in your office, asks you to be her guest for dinner at a very fancy restaurant on Saturday evening. What might you do if you actually might have some influence in awarding the contract?

Answer:

Explanation:

See the solution below

Explanation

If it is possible that you might influence the decision about awarding the contract, avoid the potential conflict of interest (Ethical Principles 2 and 3; Rules of Conduct 5, 8, 19). Avoid the conflict by telling your friend that you cannot meet with her socially until after the contract has been awarded, even if the contract will not be discussed during dinner.
