Deploying content to production is a crucial step, marking the transition from testing to live usage. Go-live support and hypercare processes are put in place to ensure a smooth transition, providing immediate assistance and troubleshooting to address any issues. This stage ensures that the OGL deployment is stable and fully functional, ready to deliver value to the organization.

Topic 2	Continuous Improvement: Mature: Ongoing refinement is essential for maintaining the effectiveness of OGL content. Oracle Guided Learning Project Management Foundations Associate - Rel 1 Sample Questions (Q21-Q26):

NEW QUESTION # 21

For which type of activity are testing statuses (e.g., Ready for test, Not required, Published) and notes/comments the two best practices?

- A. Documentation
- B. OGL kickoff
- C. Planning

Answer: C

Explanation:

Testing statuses and notes/comments are best practices in Planning (option A), as they track progress and provide context for testing phases. OGL kickoff (option B) focuses on initiation, not testing details, while Documentation (option C) records outcomes, not active tracking. Planning leverages these practices to coordinate and monitor testing effectively, ensuring readiness and clarity.

NEW QUESTION # 22

What OGL item can be used to organize content for end users in the help panel?

- A. Hotspot
- B. Display group
- C. Smart tip
- D. Beacon

Answer: B

Explanation:

A Display group (option C) organizes content in the OGL Help Panel, grouping related guides or tips for easy user access. Beacons (option A) highlight UI elements, Hotspots (option B) track interactions, and Smart Tips (option D) provide brief guidance—none serve as organizational tools. Display groups enhance navigation, ensuring users find relevant content efficiently within the panel's structure.

NEW QUESTION # 23

Which activities are part of content documentation and sign-off?

- A. Individual files in PDF format, rules communicated by email, and team members added as needed
- B. Key resources identified, documentation established, and important deadlines planned
- C. OGL content deployed in production, customized content published, and priorities established

Answer: B
