Real Estate Maryland Real Estate Salesperson Examination Sample Questions (Q77-Q82):

NEW QUESTION # 77

In what type of agency does a licensee have limited authority to act on behalf of a client buying or selling a property?

- A. A special agent
- B. A designated agent
- C. A universal agent
- D. A general agent

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract of Maryland 60-Hour Principles and Practices of Real Estate Pre-Licensing Course:

A special agent (also called a limited agent) is authorized to perform a single, specific act or transaction-such as assisting in the purchase or sale of a property.

Real estate brokers and salespersons generally act as special agents, with limited authority defined in the brokerage agreement.

They may not bind their clients to contracts without express permission.

This principle appears in the Law of Agency module and is contrasted with general agents (brokers' affiliated licensees) and universal agents (power-of-attorney representatives).

- Maryland 60-Hour Principles and Practices Course, Law of Agency section.
- Business Occupations and Professions Article §17-530 - §17-534.

NEW QUESTION # 78

When assigning a contract, what should the assignor ensure is permitted in the purchase contract?

- A. A due-on-sale clause
- B. Acceleration
- C. Assignability
- D. Termination

Answer: C

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract of Maryland 60-Hour Principles and Practices of Real Estate Pre-Licensing Course:

A contract assignment occurs when a buyer (the assignor) transfers his or her contractual rights to another party (the assignee) before closing.

However, this is only allowed if the original purchase contract permits assignment-that is, if it includes an assignability clause or does not prohibit assignment.

If the contract specifically states "non-assignable" or "assignment requires seller consent," the assignor must comply with those terms.

This concept appears in the Contracts and Transaction Procedures section of the course.

- Maryland Contract Law Principles (General Common Law on Assignability).

NEW QUESTION # 79

Sandra enters a contract to sell her home to Paul. Under the statute of frauds, the written contract must name the contracting parties, identify the subject matter of the contract, and _____.

- A. Be signed by two or more attorneys
- B. Be handwritten
- C. Achieve a result that is fair to all parties
- D. Present the essential terms and conditions of the contract

Answer: D

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed

The Statute of Frauds requires that certain contracts-including those for the sale or transfer of real property-be in writing and include:

The names of the parties,

Identification of the property, and

The essential terms and conditions (such as price and contingencies). This ensures the agreement is legally enforceable in court.

NEW QUESTION # 80

A veteran licensee always has a face-to-face meeting before he works with any buyer. What might be a good reason for this?

- A. To build trust and rapport
- B. To get the buyer's FICO score, credit report, and tax receipts
- C. To determine the buyer's ethnicity
- D. To look the buyer in the eye to see if the buyer is hiding anything

Answer: A

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract of Maryland 60-Hour Principles and Practices of Real Estate Pre-Licensing Course:

Under Maryland's agency law, a licensee must establish a relationship of trust, confidence, and loyalty with a client.

Meeting face-to-face helps the agent explain agency relationships, present the Understanding Whom Real Estate Agents Represent disclosure, and begin building rapport and confidence, which are critical in fiduciary relationships.

As emphasized in the Brokerage and Agency module, personal contact helps ensure informed consent and professional transparency-never to collect personal demographic or financial data outside proper procedures.

Reference (Maryland Source):

- Maryland 60-Hour Principles and Practices Course, Law of Agency and Broker-Client Relationships section.
- Business Occupations and Professions Article §17-530 through §17-534.

NEW QUESTION # 81

In order for an owner-occupant of a building with rental units to reject applicants based on sex, marital status, gender identity, and/or sexual orientation, they must not own more than how many rental units in a building?

- A. Three
- B. Four
- C. Five
- D. Two

Answer: B

Explanation:

Comprehensive and Detailed Explanation From Exact Extract of Maryland 60-Hour Principles and Practices of Real Estate Pre-Licensing Course:

Under Maryland's Fair Housing laws (Title 20, State Government Article), limited exemptions exist for owner-occupied buildings with four or fewer rental units.

In these cases, the owner may exercise limited discretion in selecting tenants; however, race discrimination is never permitted.

The pre-licensing course explains that while federal law (the Fair Housing Act) allows some exemptions, Maryland law still prohibits discriminatory advertising and extends protections to include sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, and source of income.
