Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 141

What type of change is often used for resolving incidents or implementing security patches?

- A. Emergency change
- B. Change model
- C. Standard change
- D. Normal change

Answer: A

Explanation:

A change that must be implemented as soon as possible without strictly following the standard process e.g. to resolve an incident or implement a security patch.

The process for assessment and authorization is expedited to ensure quick implementation, so scheduling and documentation is not a priority.

The change authority may be separate from what is standard or normal practice, typically smaller in number but with greater capacity to expedite approval.
