NEW QUESTION # 160

A learning management system (LMS) is primary used to:

- A. Check employment reference
- B. Record employee performance
- C. Track employee development
- D. Verify employment eligibility

Answer: C

Explanation:
Definition of Learning Management System (LMS):
* An LMS is a platform used by organizations to manage, deliver, and track training and development programs.
Why Tracking Employee Development is Correct:
* The primary purpose of an LMS is to facilitate and monitor employee training, ensuring that skill development aligns with organizational goals.
Eliminating Incorrect Options:
* A. Verify employment eligibility: This is handled through I-9 verification or equivalent processes, not an LMS.

* C. Record employee performance: Performance is typically tracked through performance management systems, not an LMS.
* D. Check employment reference: This is part of recruitment, unrelated to an LMS.
International HR References:
* ISO 30401: Provides guidelines for knowledge management systems, including LMS.

A company needs temporary staff to cover a seasonal increase in workload. Which external HR service provider should they contact?

- A. Training firms
- B. Recruitment firms
- C. Career coaches
- D. Staffing agencies

Answer: D

Explanation:
Staffing agencies provide temporary staff to cover increases in workload, such as seasonal demands. They have a pool of candidates ready to step in and help businesses manage short-term staffing needs.

NEW QUESTION # 162

An employee's current experience and abilities are determined by using a(n):

- A. Applicant tracking system
- B. Performance management system
- C. Succession plan
- D. Skills inventory

Answer: D

Explanation:
Comprehensive and Detailed in Depth Explanation:
A skills inventory is a tool used to catalog an employee's current experience, skills, qualifications, and abilities. It helps HR understand the workforce's capabilities for purposes like training, development, or workforce planning.
* Option A (Skills inventory): Correct, as it directly assesses an employee's current experience and abilities.
* Option B (Succession plan): This identifies employees for future leadership roles, not their current skills.
* Option C (Performance management system): This evaluates performance, not a comprehensive skills assessment.
Reference: aPHRi knowledge domain - Talent Development: Using skills inventories for workforce planning.
