One of the Scrum events is the Daily Scrum. What are two intended outcomes of the Daily Scrum?
(choose the best two answers)

- A. Identification of impediments that may prevent the Developers from achieving the Sprint Goal.
- B. A shared understanding of the most important work to be undertaken next to achieve the best possible progress toward the Sprint goal.
- C. A status report for the upper management indicating what each individual has done, will be doing, and what is impeding him/her.
- D. An updated Scrum board to make Sprint progress transparent for the stakeholders

Answer: A,B

Explanation:

E.

An update of completed tasks and of the remaining work so the Scrum Master can plan the next day.

Explanation:

According to the Scrum Guide, two intended outcomes of the Daily Scrum are identification of impediments that may prevent the Developers from achieving the Sprint Goal and a shared understanding of the most important work to be undertaken next to achieve the best possible progress toward the Sprint Goal. These outcomes help the Developers to inspect their progress, plan their work, and collaborate effectively. The other options are not intended outcomes of the Daily Scrum, as they are either irrelevant (such as updating a Scrum board) or inappropriate (such as providing a status report or an update of completed tasks).

- A. The Scrum Master.
- B. The Development Team after clarifying requirements with the Product Owner.
- C. The Development Team, alone.
- D. The Product Owner with input from the Development Team
- E. The most senior people in the organization, including architects and subject matter experts.

Answer: B

Explanation:

The Developers who will be doing the work are responsible for sizing or estimating it. The Product Owner may influence them by helping them understand and select trade-offs.

NEW QUESTION # 54

Who is responsible for engaging the stakeholders?

- A. The Team Manager.
- B. The Development Team
- C. The Business Analyst.
- D. The Project Manager.
- E. The Product Owner.

Answer: E
