Salesforce Certified Slack Administrator Sample Questions (Q33-Q38):

NEW QUESTION # 33

You're an Org Primary Owner on your company's Slack's Enterprise Grid. You have six workspaces, each representing one line of business. Your company's Chief Information Officer (CIO) is keen on keeping all members of the organization informed about new Slack features on an ongoing basis.

How can you ensure all members are receiving ongoing enablement on new Slack features?
(Select the best answer.)

- A. Direct members to a whelp-slack channel to ask questions about new Slack features and receive feedback from your Slack Champions.

- B. Advise Workspace Admins to direct all members to Slack's website to review new features.
- C. Leverage an org-wide channel to announce new Slack features on a recurring basis, and bookmark useful links and learning material in channel.
- D. Pin messages related to new Slack features in a dedicated multi-workspace channel on a recurring basis.

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 34

You will be managing a new product launch and have just been assigned a new team of 12 members. The launch will be complex and will require cross-collaboration within the organization. To start, you will need to introduce yourself as the project manager to each team member and introduce the scope of the new project.

What should you do?

(Select the best answer.)

- A. Create a new public channel for the project, invite the team members and introduce yourself and the project scope. This will allow for increased transparency for the project team and help onboard new project members who may join in the future.
- B. Start a group direct message (group DM) with the members on the team introducing yourself and the project scope. This will allow members to have visibility into who else is on the team and provide a secure opportunity to ask questions.
- C. Start a direct message (DM) with each member on the team, introducing yourself and the project scope. This secure approach will allow each member to reach out to you directly with questions before the project starts.
- D. Create a new private channel for the project, invite the team members and introduce yourself and the project scope. This will allow for increased transparency for the project team and ensure the details of the project are not exposed to anyone outside of the project team

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 35

You are a Workspace Owner and the product manager for a snowboard manufacturing company based in Vancouver, Canada.

As product manager for the company's RebelX line, you are responsible for all aspects of production, including managing your supplier relationships. You have a connected channel called #supplier-bindings with one of your suppliers based in Osaka, Japan, and you use this channel to plan shipments of bindings and manage all interactions with this supplier.

Unfortunately, one of the supplier's deliveries has not arrived, and if you don't receive it by next week, your inventory and sales will be negatively affected.

Because of the timezone difference, you need to notify all channel members about the delay so they are aware as soon as possible or tomorrow morning at the start of the business day.

What should you do?

- A. Send an @everyone in a message to your workspace-wide #general channel.
- B. Send a message that includes an @channel and @everyone to #supplier-bindings.
- C. Send a message that includes an @channel and @here to #supplier-bindings.
- D. Direct message your key contact who belongs to the connected channel, so they are directly informed.

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 36

GoodAdvertisements Inc works with several companies to support global advertising campaigns and are on a paid plan. They are preparing for a campaign launch that requires input from multiple companies.

GoodAdvertisements Inc wants the ability to coordinate effectively with the companies before and during their respective launch in a private channel, but it is not clear whether the companies use paid Slack plans.

The Admins at the company want to take security precautions before inviting any outside individuals into their Slack workspace.

What is the best way for the Admins to have the individuals from the outside companies join the Slack workspace and ensure the process scales for future launches with other companies?

- A. Require that invitations get approval via a #guest-invitation-approval channel so Admins can action the requests and inform project leaders to invite individuals from outside companies as Single-Channel Guests. Set expiry dates for the Single-Channel Guests.
- B. Require that invitations get approval via a #guest-invitation-approval channel so Admins can action the requests and inform project leaders to invite individuals from outside companies as Multi-Channel Guests. Set expiry dates for the Multi-Channel Guests.

- C. Ask the outside companies to upgrade to the paid plan. Then, share the launch channel externally to the companies, and set a reminder to unshare the channel when the launch is complete.
- D. Have the Admins individually send out Single-Channel Guest invitations.

Answer: A

Explanation:

The best practice in Slack for securely collaborating with external partners is:

"Use Single-Channel Guests for external users when collaboration is limited to specific channels. Admins should control guest approvals, ideally via a private approval workflow, and set expiry dates for guest accounts to ensure access is revoked after projects end." Multi-Channel Guests (Option B) provide broader access than necessary, and manually inviting guests (Option C) does not scale well. Asking companies to upgrade (Option D) is unrealistic for scalable collaboration.
