The Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM) Exam is a professional certification program designed specifically for individuals working in the public financial management sector. AGA (Association of Government Accountants), an organization that supports the government financial management profession, developed the CGFM program to enhance the skills and knowledge of government financial managers, and to recognize those who have achieved a high level of expertise in the field. The CGFM certification is highly regarded in the public financial management industry and is recognized by federal, state and local government agencies, as well as private sector organizations that work with government entities.

The CGFM certification consists of three exams designed to test the knowledge of financial management in the public sector. CGFM Exams cover various topics such as financial reporting, auditing, budgeting, financial analysis, and ethics in government financial management. CGFM exams are computer-based and available at testing centers. Each exam is timed and consists of multiple-choice questions.

AGA CGFM or Certified Government Financial Manager exam is a highly recognized certification program for professionals working in the government financial management sector. The CGFM certification is designed to provide financial managers with the knowledge and skills they need to excel in their respective roles.

NEW QUESTION # 66

A governmental attestation engagement may include a requirement to

- A. monitor purchasing card charges for compliance with travel policies.
- B. monitor a subgrantee for compliance to the grant restrictions.
- C. establish a policy concerning fraud prevention.
- D. review the revenue coverage requirements on outstanding bonds.

Answer: D

Explanation:

* Governmental Attestation Engagements:

* These engagements involve providing assurance on specific elements of financial or non- financial information, such as compliance with laws, contracts, or bond covenants.

* Reviewing revenue coverage requirements for outstanding bonds fits the scope of attestation engagements, which focus on confirming adherence to specific requirements.

* Explanation of Answer Choices:

* A. Monitor a subgrantee for compliance to the grant restrictions: Monitoring is a management responsibility, not typically part of an attestation engagement.

* B. Establish a policy concerning fraud prevention: Establishing policies is a management duty, not a task for auditors.

* C. Monitor purchasing card charges for compliance with travel policies: Monitoring is operational, not attestation-related.

* D. Review the revenue coverage requirements on outstanding bonds: Correct. This falls within the scope of attestation engagements.

References:

* GAO, Government Auditing Standards (Yellow Book).

* AICPA, Attestation Standards for Government Engagements.
