Network Appliance NetApp Technology Solutions Professional Exam Sample Questions (Q58-Q63):

NEW QUESTION # 58

Which NetApp BlueXP product enables a customer to provide read and write access to remote Windows servers from a centralized datastore?

- A. BlueXP tiering
- B. BlueXP copy and sync
- C. BlueXP edge caching
- D. Cloud Volumes ONTAP

Answer: C

Explanation:

BlueXP edge caching is a NetApp BlueXP product that enables a customer to provide read and write access to remote Windows servers from a centralized datastore. BlueXP edge caching allows you to cache data from a BlueXP volume or a Cloud Volume ONTAP system on a local Windows server, which improves the performance and availability of your applications. You can also sync the cached data back to the source volume, ensuring data consistency and protection.

NEW QUESTION # 59

A company has a NetApp ONTAP solution deployed in a data center. The current solution has a large amount of inactive data. An administrator needs to free space in the data center without affecting access to the data.

Which NetApp technology accomplishes this task?

- A. BlueXP backup and recovery
- B. Cloud Volumes Service
- C. BlueXP tiering
- D. Cloud Volumes ONTAP

Answer: C

Explanation:

BlueXP tiering is a service that extends your data center to the cloud by automatically tiering inactive data from on-premises ONTAP clusters to object storage. This frees valuable space on the cluster for more workloads, without making changes to the application layer. BlueXP tiering can reduce costs in your data center and enables you to switch from a CAPEX model to an OPEX model. BlueXP tiering leverages the capabilities of FabricPool, which is a NetApp Data Fabric technology that enables automated tiering of data to low-cost object storage. Active (hot) data remains on the local tier (on-premises ONTAP aggregates), while inactive (cold) data is moved to the cloud tier - all while preserving ONTAP data efficiencies¹².

NEW QUESTION # 60

A storage administrator wants to expand an existing NetApp ONTAP AFF cluster with cost-effective nearline storage for archiving purposes.

What should the administrator do to accomplish this task?

- A. Add SSDs to the existing AFF cluster.
- B. Upgrade the AFF controllers to a higher system.
- C. Add a new FAS system to the existing AFF cluster.
- D. Expand the cluster with a new AFF system.

Answer: C

Explanation:

= Adding a new FAS system to the existing AFF cluster is a way to expand the storage capacity with cost-effective nearline storage for archiving purposes. A FAS system can use HDDs as the performance tier and tier cold data to cloud object storage using FabricPool, which is a NetApp data tiering technology that reduces the amount of physical capacity taken up by data. This way, the administrator can leverage the storage efficiencies of ONTAP and the low-cost storage of the cloud to archive data that is not frequently accessed. The AFF and FAS systems can be managed by the same ONTAP cluster and provide seamless data access and protection.

NEW QUESTION # 61

A database administrator needs 30 writeable copies of a database that will not take additional space when created. Which NetApp ONTAP feature meets this requirement?

- A. SnapVault
- B. FlexCache
- C. FlexClone
- D. SnapLock

Answer: C

Explanation:

FlexClone is an ONTAP feature that allows you to instantly create writable virtual copies of data volumes, files, and LUNs, which do not consume storage space. A FlexClone volume, file, or LUN is a writable point-in-time image of the FlexVol volume or another FlexClone volume, file, or LUN. FlexClone is based on Snapshot technology, which captures a read-only image of a volume at a given point in time. FlexClone is perfect for DevOps and test environments, where multiple copies of a database are needed for testing or development purposes.

NEW QUESTION # 62

A storage administrator logs into their NetApp BlueXP observability environment and wants to install an infrastructure data collector to begin collecting data.

Which item should be configured first?

- A. Data Collector
- B. Acquisition Unit
- C. NetApp ONTAP SVM Data Collector
- D. Agent

Answer: B

Explanation:

An acquisition unit is a software component that collects data from various sources and sends it to the BlueXP observability service. It is the first item that should be configured before installing any data collectors or agents. Data collectors are plugins that run on the acquisition unit and collect data from specific sources, such as NetApp ONTAP SVMs. Agents are optional components that can be installed on hosts to collect additional data, such as process and network metrics.
