Workday Pro Talent and Performance Exam Sample Questions (Q41-Q46):

NEW QUESTION # 41

You want to launch performance reviews with calibration. However, during calibration you do not want managers to receive performance review-related Inbox tasks.

What step should you add to the configuration to allow this?

- A. The Await Calibration Completion service step in the Complete Manager Evaluation business process
- B. The Update Performance Review Ratings for Manager Evaluation step in the Complete Manager Evaluation business process
- C. A To Do step in the Launch Calibration business process
- D. The Shared Participation step in the Launch Calibration business process

Answer: A

Explanation:

* To prevent managers from receiving Inbox tasks during calibration, you configure the Await Calibration Completion service step in theComplete Manager Evaluation BP.

* This holds manager evaluation tasks until calibration is finalized.

* Incorrect options:

* To Do step in Launch Calibration# only provides reminders, does not prevent tasks.

* Update Performance Review Ratings step# allows updates after calibration but doesn't prevent tasks.

* Shared Participation step# controls collaboration in calibration, not blocking Inbox tasks.

NEW QUESTION # 42

Which configuration is responsible for determining what actions employees and managers can take during a talent review?

- A. Domain security
- B. Employee potential
- C. Organization membership
- D. Talent review template rule

Answer: D

Explanation:

This question is about Talent Reviews in Workday and what drives the permissions or actions that employees and managers can take during the review process.

Let's analyze the choices:

* A. Organization membership

* Incorrect.

* Organization membership (e.g., supervisory org, talent pool) determines which workers are included in the review.

* It does not determine what actions managers or employees can take.

* B. Employee potential

* Incorrect.

* Employee potential is an attribute (like performance, loss impact, retention risk) used for evaluation in the talent review grid.

* It informs the content of the review, not the actions available to participants.

* C. Domain security

* Partially correct but not the best answer.

* Domain security determines who has access to initiate or view Talent Reviews, but it does not drive process actions inside the review (such as rating, adding notes, or calibrating).

* D. Talent review template rule

* Correct.

* The Talent Review Template Rule defines the configuration of the talent review process, including:

* Which sections appear (e.g., 9-box grid, attributes, notes).

* Which actions participants (employees, managers, HR partners) can perform.

* Whether calibration is enabled, whether participants can move employees between grid boxes, and other interactive review behaviors.

* This is the configuration responsible for controlling what employees and managers can do during a talent review event.

Therefore, the correct answer is Talent review template rule.

* ERP Cloud Training - Workday Talent Reviews:"Template rules control functionality such as allowing participants to update potential ratings, add notes, or move workers in the grid. Security domains only manage access."

* Workday Community Documentation - Talent Review Configuration:Confirms that template rules define the actions and behaviors within a talent review session.

- * Maintain Skill Item Categories# categorizes skills, not source priority.

- * They help organizations track readiness, identify high potentials, and prepare workers for future roles.
- * Incorrect options:
- * A. Organizing by hierarchy is done via Supervisory Organizations, not talent pools.
