UiPath Automation Developer Associate v1 Exam Sample Questions (Q87-Q92):

NEW QUESTION # 87

When a developer is examining a suspended state upon reaching a breakpoint, which activity will the Executor be directed to if Step Out is selected from the Debug section in UiPath Studio's ribbon interface?

- A. S2
- B. A1
- C. S1
- D. W1

Answer: C

Explanation:

When a developer selects "Step Out" from the Debug section in UiPath Studio's ribbon interface while examining a suspended state upon reaching a breakpoint, the executor will be directed to the activity that called the current container (or the next activity in the higher scope). In the context of the provided sequence structure, stepping out from A1 (assuming that's where the breakpoint is) would go to the next higher scope, which is S2, as it is the sequence that contains A1. Therefore, the correct answer is D (S2 in the image).

NEW QUESTION # 88

A process workflow contains a Try Catch activity that is designed to catch and stop when any unknown System Exceptions occur. What would be the recommended Log Level for the Log Message contained in the System Exception block?

- A. Error
- B. Warn
- C. Info
- D. Fatal

Answer: D

Explanation:

The recommended Log Level for the Log Message activity that is contained within the System Exception block of a Try Catch activity designed to catch and stop for any unknown System Exceptions is "Fatal." This level is used to indicate that a critical error has occurred, typically one that leads to a termination of the application.

NEW QUESTION # 89

What advantages do pre-built connectors in UiPath Integration Service offer?

- A. Replacing all types of authorization and authentication protocols with a single, standardized method.
- B. Providing a fully customizable catalog of connectors for developing proprietary applications.
- C. Reducing the need for UI and API automation, allowing developers to work exclusively with connectors.
- D. Simplified integration with popular applications, faster deployment, and integration across all UiPath Platform product solutions.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Explanation

Pre-built connectors in UiPath Integration Service offer the advantage of simplifying the integration process for any automation that uses common applications such as Salesforce, Slack, Microsoft Office 365, SAP, ServiceNow, and Google G Suite1. They also enable faster deployment and integration across all product solutions within the UiPath Platform2.

NEW QUESTION # 90

A developer is working with a Purchase Order automation process. The number of shipment containers and boxes per container are obtained in two strings, "ShipmentContainers" and "BoxesPerContainer". The task is for the robot to obtain the total number of boxes in all shipment containers in an Int32 variable TotalBoxes.

Which expression should be used for calculating the total number of boxes?

- A. ShipmentContainers * BoxesPerContainer
- B. Convert.ToInt32(ShipmentContainers) * Convert.ToInt32(BoxesPerContainer)
- C. ShipmentContainers.ToInt32() * BoxesPerContainer.ToInt32()
- D. ShipmentContainers.ToInt() * BoxesPerContainer.ToInt()

Answer: B

Explanation:

To calculate the total number of boxes in all shipment containers, the expression that should be used is:

Convert.ToInt32(ShipmentContainers) * Convert.ToInt32(BoxesPerContainer) This expression converts the two strings, "ShipmentContainers" and "BoxesPerContainer", into integer values using the Convert.ToInt32 method. This method converts the specified string representation of a 32-bit signed integer to an equivalent integer value1. Then, the expression multiplies the two integer values to obtain the total number of boxes. For example, if "ShipmentContainers" is "5" and "BoxesPerContainer" is "10", then the expression will return 50 as the total number of boxes.

NEW QUESTION # 91

What is the purpose of the Invoke Code activity in UiPath?

- A. Invokes VB.NET code, optionally passing it a list of input arguments.
- B. Invokes VB.NET or Java code, optionally passing it a list of input arguments.
- C. Invokes Java code, optionally passing it a list of input arguments.
- D. Invokes VB.NET or C# code, optionally passing it a list of input arguments.

Answer: D

Explanation:

The Invoke Code activity in UiPath is an activity that allows developers to execute custom code written in VB.NET or C# within a workflow. The activity can accept a list of input arguments and return a list of output arguments, which can be used to exchange data between the code and the workflow. The activity can also access the variables and arguments defined in the current scope of the workflow. The Invoke Code activity can be useful for scenarios where the existing activities do not meet the specific requirements or logic of the automation process. (UiPath Automation Developer study guide)
