NEW QUESTION # 109

A security consultant has been retained to assist management at a warehouse with a cargo theft problem they have been experiencing. One of the first areas the consultant should explore is to:

- A. ensure container seals in use are replaced with high-security seals.
- B. check with the local Police Department to determine if an organized retail crime ring is operating in the area.
- C. determine whether documentation and shipping procedures may pose a security hazard.
- D. employ GPS (Global Positioning System) tracking devices to determine the destination of stolen goods.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Cargo theft is often facilitated by vulnerabilities in documentation and shipping processes. Initial areas for review should include:

- * Documentation processes that could expose shipment details to unauthorized parties.
- * Lax controls over access to shipping schedules and manifests.
- * Compliance with secure shipping standards.

While other options like GPS tracking and container seals are valuable, addressing procedural vulnerabilities often reveals systemic issues contributing to theft.

CPP Context:

- * Supply Chain Security: Emphasizes the importance of procedural integrity in preventing theft.
- * Risk-Based Security Audits: Guides consultants to prioritize procedural assessments before implementing technical measures.

NEW QUESTION # 110

Which security program emphasizes a continuing attitude that can move an individual to take specific actions to report or decrease security risks?

- A. Sustainment
- B. Awareness
- C. Training
- D. Education

Answer: B

Explanation:

A security awareness program emphasizes fostering a mindset and ongoing attitude in individuals to take actions that reduce security risks. This approach builds a culture of vigilance across the organization.

- * Attitudinal Focus:
 - * Encourages employees to remain alert to potential risks and report suspicious activities.
- * Practical Actions:
 - * Motivates individuals to follow best practices and reduce risks in their daily tasks.
- * Widespread Engagement:
 - * Targets all employees, fostering a unified approach to security.
- * A: Training imparts specific skills but does not sustain ongoing attitudes.
- * B: Sustainment refers to maintaining established systems or practices.
- * C: Education focuses on in-depth understanding, not immediate action.

Characteristics of Security Awareness: Why Other Options Are Incorrect: ASIS CPP References:

- * Domain 3: Security Operations Highlights the role of awareness programs in organizational security.
