NEW QUESTION # 21
Which of the following is part of the Explore phase for new implementations? Note: There are 2 correct ans-wers to this que-stion.

- A. Fit-to-standard
- B. Data load preparation
- C. Cutover plan
- D. Customer self-enablement

Answer: A,B

Explanation:
In the Explore phase for new implementations, such as SAP S/4HANA Cloud, key activities include:
* A. Data load preparation: This involves preparing and mapping data for initial testing and system validation. It is crucial for ensuring that the system can handle real business data in a controlled environment.
* B. Fit-to-standard: This activity involves analyzing and mapping business processes to the standard functionality available in SAP S/4HANA. It is an essential part of the Explore phase where the suitability of standard processes to business requirements is assessed and documented.
These activities are fundamental to setting the stage for successful implementation by ensuring that data and processes are aligned with the capabilities of the SAP system.References:

NEW QUESTION # 22
What does a cutover involve? Note: There are 2 correct ans-wers to this que-stion.

- A. Presenting completed functionality to key users
- B. Completing solution end-user documentation
- C. Aligning business and technical cutover plans
- D. Switching productive operations to new system

Answer: C,D

Explanation:
A cutover typically involves:
* B. Switching productive operations to new system: This is a critical component of the cutover process, where the business officially starts operating on the new system after successful completion of the previous phases.
* D. Aligning business and technical cutover plans: Ensures that both the business and technical aspects of the project are synchronized and ready for the transition to the new system. Options A (Completing solution end-user documentation) and C (Presenting completed functionality to key users) are important tasks in a project lifecycle but are not typically considered core components of the cutover process itself.
